About the Speakers Bureau
Arranging for a Speaker

MARICOPA COUNTY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Effective crime control is dependent on a highly informed and involved public. Toward that end, the Maricopa County Attorney's Office created the Speakers Bureau in 1990 to provide basic, useful information about the criminal justice process in an effort to keep the citizens of Maricopa County aware of public policy, social issues, crime trends and the criminal justice system.

The Speakers Bureau is a free public service that services elementary school, high schools, colleges, civic organizations and other business and professional associations throughout Maricopa County.

If you would like to have one of our experts speak to your group, please call the Maricopa County Attorney's Office to arrange for a speaker on the topic of your choice.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Romley
Maricopa County Attorney

About the Speakers Bureau

The Maricopa County Attorney's Office has more than 300 Deputy County Attorneys and law enforcement specialists available to speak to schools, civic organizations, professional associations and societies on a variety of criminal justice topics. The Speakers Bureau was created with the idea that in order for there to be effective crime control, there must also be an informed and involved public. The aim of the bureau is to provide basic, useful information to citizen groups so they are better equipped to protect themselves and the community from criminal activity.

The Speakers Bureau is a free public service provided by the Maricopa County Attorney's Office for the community. Our experts speak on topics like organized crime, constitutional law, sex crimes, drug laws and graffiti. All speakers are Deputy County Attorneys and/or members of the staff who volunteer their time to improve communication and open dialog about the criminal justice system with community members.
